WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The treasury department today openly admitted that the slow progress of the fourth liberty loan toward its six billion dollar goal is a matter of serious concern.

With the three weeks' subscription period half gone, the loan is only 20 per cent subscribed. The total reported to the treasury up to tonight is $1,701,468,390.

"There is no use denying or attempting to camouflage the fact, that the country is confronted with a serious situation," said the treasury statement reviewing the campaign reports.

"If the loan is to be subscribed, a daily average of $457,000 must be raised between now and October 13."

"Confronted with the fact that the loan never can succeed at the present rate of speed, canvassers throughout the country are stating plainly to all citizens that they must buy bonds in larger amounts than heretofore. Wealthy persons particularly must go deeper into their capital or extend their credit and not depend upon their current income to pay for bonds. People of moderate and small means must pledge their future earnings in greater degree."

"Double the Third." has been adopted as a slogan in many districts to stimulate subscribers to do twice as much as they did in the last loan.

Subscriptions by districts and percentages of quotas were reported as follows:

District	Subscription	Pct.
St. Louis	$161,782,700	62
Minneapolis	102,952,200	41
Boston	220,529,850	44
San Francisco	155,166,700	38
Chicago	296,461,700	34
Dallas	106,123,500	37
Cleveland	166,011,200	27
Richmond	74,723,000	26
Philadelphia	118,075,450	23
New York	378,163,000	21
Atlanta	36,971,050	15
Kansas City	43,407,200	16

Despite the serious influence of the influenza epidemic with campaign plans, analysis of reports show that the state where the epidemic is worst that have the poorest showings, in New England, where the disease has been most widespread, some of the best records have been made.

St. Louis district managers reported today that influenza was spreading and affecting many workers but that those remaining were going ahead with a determination to achieve the district's quota early next week.

Minneapolis Reports Quota

The city of Minneapolis today became the first Federal reserve district center to report its quota, with subscriptions of $27,000,000.

In the Chicago district 1,342 communities have been awarded honor flags.

Alaska, Hawaii, Oregon, Idaho and Washington in the San Francisco district all have obtained more than 50 per cent of their quotas.

LLOYD-GEORGE REJOICES OVER GREAT VICTORY

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Premier Lloyd-George has sent the following message to Field Marshal Haig in the field:

"I have just heard from Marshal Foch of the brilliant victory won by the Third and Fourth armies and wish to express to yourself, General Byng, General Rawlinson and all the officers and men under your command my sincerest congratulations on the great and significant success which the British army, with their American brother-in-arms have gained during the past few days."

"The courage and tenacity with which the troops of the empire, after withstanding terrific enemy onslaughts in the spring of this year, again resumed the offensive with such decisive results is the greatest chapter of our military history. The smashing of the great defensive system erected by the enemy, deemed to be impregnable, is a feat of which all are justly proud and for which the empire will ever be grateful."

WOUNDED BUT IS SOON TO RETURN TO ACTIVE SERVICE

ROY L. IRWIN.

(Special to The Republican)

HANFORD, Oct. 9.—"It will not be long before I can return to duty." This cheering message has just been received by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Irwin of near this city, from their son, Roy L. Irwin, who on August 5, was severely wounded in action on one of the American fronts in France.

Private Irwin's name appeared yesterday on the official casualty list, though he was injured more than two months ago and was able to be up and around on August 25.

He is a member of Company B 12th machine gun battalion. His injuries, according to letters received by his parents, consisted of a shrapnel wound which struck his wrist and hip. The shrapnel cut the strap on his wrist watch and it fell to the ground but he was able to pick it up and crawl near a mile to a first aid station in the field.

The injured soldier is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin. He is 25 years of age. An older brother is in the mechanical school at San Pedro, and packed ready to go, he writes.

FRENCH SOCIALISTS APPROVE DEMAND FOR GUARANTEES

PARIS, Oct. 9.—Pierre Renaudel, leader of the majority socialists in the chamber of deputies, today proposed the following resolution in socialist congress:

"The socialist party, confirming its address to President Wilson, gives its approval to the answer just made in the name of the President by Secretary of State Lansing to the German chancellor's note."

"The socialist party views with satisfaction this first serious application of positive public diplomacy. It observes that the door is thus opened to the belligerents for a just peace. It approves the diplomatic and military assistance rendered by President Wilson for an armistice."

EXPECT SPEEDY ANSWER TO WILSON'S QUERY

Max Must Say Who He Is

What

AUSTRIA IS IN SERIOUS PLIGHT

Evasive Answer from Berlin Will End
Hun Effort

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—An early response to President Wilson's note of inquiry to the German chancellor is expected by American officials. While realizing that an answer to the three pertinent questions put to the Kaiser of Baden will be very difficult if the original proposal of the German government were not sincere, officials are confident that the imperial conditions in Germany and the desperate exigencies of the military situation will force speedy action by the chancellor if he hopes to prolong the existence of his cabinet beyond a few days.

So far as the hold of the government upon the people is concerned, conditions in Austria are even far worse than those in Germany. This fact is calculated strongly to affect the German government, which is understood to entertain grave doubts of the strength of position of the dual monarchy and its "four great powers."

Perhaps Hungary's action independently, will follow Bulgaria in seeking an unconditional peace. This would leave Germany to wage the war alone. For it is a foregone conclusion that Turkey already is lost to the Central Alliance.

The pointed inquiry directed to Prince Max as to whether he is speaking merely for the constituted authorities of the empire who have so far conducted the war, will, it is believed, have very serious results.

In the affirmative, Germany's proposal will be rejected as the President has already given notice that he will have no dealings with such authorities.

The powerful socialist elements in the Reichstag also are counted upon to reject any such statement by the chancellor as directly in conflict with the rebuffing resolution of July, 1917, and with the very recent pledges to make the cabinet a representative body under which the socialists were entitled to take part in the government.

On the other hand if Max attempts to repudiate the military party he undoubtedly will bring about a demand from that still powerful organization for his resignation.

The general belief here is that the chancellor will endeavor to find a middle course and confine himself in his reply to half way admissions, hoping thus to begin a long diplomatic discussion which might develop difficulties between the Central Powers and America as to one aim, and to lower the morale of the army opposed to the Central Powers.

Any such move is certain of failure.

Claims for Damages

The fact that American Ambassador Sharp is making a personal investigation of the havoc wrought by the Germans in their forced retirement from French and Belgian territory, has led to the belief that it is the purpose of the state department to support fully the enormous claims for damages which Germans must meet as a condition of peace. So far the American government has not indicated a disposition to join with the Entente Allies in joining with a threat to destroy a German city or town in retaliation for every such community destroyed by the Germans in France and Belgium, but Sharp's investigation might be regarded as also indicating a purpose to join in such representations, should the facts sustain the press reports of the extent of the German atrocities.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 9.—The German Reichstag has been summoned to meet on October 12, according to the Berlin Tageblatt. Chancellor Maximilian's recent speech and the political situation will be taken under discussion.

ARERDEEN, S. D., Oct. 9.—Congressman Royal C. Johnson of South Dakota has been slightly wounded in France, according to word received by his wife.

NEXT MOVE
IN BELGIUM?

The Entire French Army
Moved North in New
Pincer Operation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Germany's plea for an armistice is founded, both American and Allied military officials here believe, upon recognition in Berlin of the fact that the German army organization in France is slowly disintegrating under the terrific campaign of these officers against the move of the German character as a desperate attempt to escape a military disaster and they would not be surprised if President Wilson's condition that there can be no talk of an armistice except when coupled with agreement to withdraw immediately from all invaded territory were promptly accepted.

The answer to such a move, it was suggested today, would be to leave to Marshal Foch the dictation of the terms of the armistice should the situation ever reach that stage as the supreme commander can be trusted to make the most of the military advantage to the enemy resulted from the meeting of Marshal Foch hour by hour in surrounding the German forces with new perils as his strategic conceptions are developed.

Organization Confused

Evidence of the waning resisting power of the German forces in France was "plainly" observed here in the sweep forward of the Anglo-American forces north of St. Quentin. Apparently there has been no material lowering of the fighting quality of the enemy soldiers, but there is every evidence that the complex military organization upon which defense of the long battle front depends is breaking under the strain of confusion.

These signs only, for the enemy front still offers a grim obstacle to the advancing armies and the battle is growing dark in the forest of the Meuse. But the signs are there. They mean a vital weakness at the heart of the great machine; the absolute lack of the men and war equipment to meet the combined assault of the Allies.

Salween, Laos

In the line between Verdun and the sea, two salients are developing. The first has its apex along the Laon front, where the enemy still clings to the St. Gobain ridge and part of the Chemin-Des-Dames ridge. The second has its greatest depth before Lens. Between these two salients, in the French front, supplemented by the French.

PLACES GERMANY IN BAD DILEMMA

British Papers See Vigor in Simplicity of
Wilson's Reply

LONDON, Oct. 9.—In varying tones, according to their political faiths, the London morning newspapers unanimously praise President Wilson's reply to Germany's peace offer, declaring it shows the complete unity of the Allies.

The conservative papers are suspicious of the good faith of the German chancellor and most of the newspapers refer to the burning and destruction of the country still working on Allied towns. But all admire the searching character of the President's questions to the chancellor.

The reply is commented on in conjunction with the splendid news from the front. The Daily Mail claims the victory and unconditional surrender is almost in sight. It declares the Hohenzollerns and criminals around them must abdicate or be surrendered to the Allies.

The Daily News says the strength of the reply is not in its simplicity, but in its simplicity. Compliance, the newspaper says, means confession of defeat; resistance means ruin. Every sane German knows there is no third course.

OPEN FIELD FIGHTING ON 20-MILE LINE

British, Americans and French
Put to Rout Twenty-three Divisions; Occupy Cambrai

(By the Associated Press.)

The German armies are in full flight before the British, American and French forces on the front between Cambrai and St. Quentin. Cambrai, the strong point of the enemy in this region, has been taken by the Canadians in its entirety and north of Cambrai the Canadians have deeply penetrated the German line.

Out in the open, east of what once was the old Hindenburg line, cavalry is hustling the retreating foe in what virtually amounts to a rout. So fast is the retreat that columns of the Allied troops in parade formation have passed through numerous villages, completely out of contact with the Germans.

More than 10,000 prisoners and between 100 and 200 guns were captured in Tuesday's fighting, and the continuation of the battle Wednesday resulted in further large captures.

In the fighting, twenty-three German divisions—more than a quarter of a million men—have been severely mauled.

The maximum depth of the advance is between eight and ten miles. The Germans are declared to be fleeing to the east of Le Cateau, one of the most important railroad centers in this region.

Behind them, the Germans are leaving the country devastated, burning towns and villages as they flee.

(By the Associated Press.)

The victory seemingly is a complete one and with General Foch's strategy working smoothly in bending back the German line in one great converging movement, the Germans apparently are in a serious predicament. From the region northwest of Rheims to the Meuse river, north of Verdun, the French and Americans are slowly but surely pushing the Germans backward toward the Belgian border.

In Macedonia and Asiatic Turkey the troops of the Entente still have the enemy on the run. Nowhere is the enemy able to do more than fight rearguard battles, moving around when the pressure becomes too strong.

Under the avalanche of steel hurled against them on the Cambrai-St. Quentin sector, the Germans could not live and were forced to flee eastward. Heavy casualties were inflicted on those of the enemy who had the temerity to endeavor to make a stand, on the other hand the casualties of the Allies are declared to have been relatively small, those of the Americans being less than half the number of prisoners taken by them.

Where the enemy purposes to make his next stand cannot be foretold, but probably an effort for a turn-about will be attempted along the Valenciennes-Sedan front. After this, the only known German defensive position west of the Rhine is the Meuse river. The Americans already are threatening to make this line untenable, having started an advance up the valley on the eastern side of the stream toward Sedan.

The maneuvers of the French north-west of Rheims are cutting more deeply into the German lines despite the serious resistance that is being offered by the enemy to postpone the fall of the great St. Quentin salient, one of the most important strategic positions of the battle front by the successful operations around St. Quentin and Reims.

Strong Crossing the Suippe

French resistance is being imposed by the Germans against further advance by the French and Americans in Champagne and east of the Argonne forest. Particularly heavy counterattacks have been launched by the enemy on various positions but without results other than increasing his casualties. Along the Suippe river, the fighting is furious, but the French have been able to make further crossings of the stream. St. Etienne has changed hands several times in bitter combats.

East of the Argonne forest, the Americans have driven the line forward to the region of Conroy on the Aire river, where they have effected a junction with the French troops and seemingly the Argonne forest soon will be in Allied hands. On the eastern side of the Meuse the Americans have advanced and taken several small villages and also strengthened out their line which was being outflanked by the German guns from the east.

Haig Reports Victory

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The whole of Cambrai is in British possession, Field Marshal Haig reports tonight from headquarters. The Canadians were the first to enter the town.

In the great defeat inflicted on the German army, 10,000 prisoners and from 100 to 200 guns were captured.

The statement says: "We inflicted a heavy defeat on the enemy yesterday between St. Quentin and..."

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY
NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 9.—(By the Associated Press, 10:25 p. m.)

Complete reports show that the Mamelles fortifications have been occupied by the Americans. The Mamelles are the last of the old fortifications that stood in the way of the American advance. The Mamelles were taken after a half hour's fighting. The advance here and there had been momentarily checked by fierce resistance and the stiffest kind of machine gun fire, but the Americans had so resolutely gone after their objective and the advance artillery firing had been so complete that nothing could stop them.

More than 1,500 prisoners had been counted up to late this afternoon. These were confined in the cages and more were coming in.

After a strategic point of view the victory was more important than it first appeared. From just north of Romagne and east and west of the point carried by the American troops there is nothing but level ground and no more serious enemy fortifications to encounter.

Crippling to Huns

Ideal conditions for the Americans are in prospect and the Germans have lost a large part of their strength—their tremendous fortifications and concrete pill boxes.

After an intense nineteen hour bombardment, which nearly destroyed and shattered the German defenses, the American infantry began its advance at 8:30 o'clock. All along the front a heavy mist was hanging and aerial observers were unable to report for several hours the progress of the advance. The attack was a success or a failure.

The first reports that began to trickle in before noon told today of the success of the engineers who were on the covered hill 289, which they declared they could hold against any German attack. This was the first necessary step in an envelopment movement on Romagne.

Still Much to Do

Simultaneously the second report, which at first was not credited, arrived. It was to the effect that the Mamelles trench had been reached. Other reports briefly told of the successful entry of the Americans into a nearby wood.

The line is by no means straightened out due east and west and other portions of the powerful Hindenburg Stellung line remain to be pierced or outflanked.

The third American success of the day was in the Argonne, where the troops made steady progress through a tangle of woods and underbrush and reached the important town of Grand Pre. They encountered desperate opposition with the usual machine gun tactics but the advance of the 1st division has been reported and their superiority over the enemy and has made them irresistible.

FRESNO WARNED BY STATE TO WATCH THE GRIPPE

Health Officer Notified to Guard Public Against Spanish Influenza

Dr. Nauss of State Board Explains Situation; Report Cases

Warning to be on the lookout for fresh cases of Spanish influenza has been received by Dr. C. Mathewson, city health officer, from the secretary of the state board of health. He has also been asked to take all necessary measures to prevent spread of the influenza or grippé locally.

Dr. Ralph W. Nauss, state district health officer, further emphasizes the necessity on the part of everybody co-operating with the local health authorities, and reporting all cases promptly. They should also guard against contact with infection, and make the isolation of cases as complete as possible.

Dr. Nauss gives the following account of the situation: According to recent instructions from the secretary of the state board of health, the local health officers are authorized to require the isolation of cases of influenza appearing in their respective jurisdictions. All suspected cases should therefore be reported to your local health officer.

The law of California makes it the duty of every attending or consulting physician, nurse or other person having charge of or caring for any person afflicted with a contagious or infectious disease to report it at once in writing to the local health officer.

The first essential step, therefore, in the control of communicable diseases is prompt reporting of known or suspected cases to the local health officer. The physician then first of all is responsible for keeping the health officer informed of cases or suspected cases of communicable diseases coming under his care or observation. However, every one knowing of or supporting the presence of disease known to be transmissible owes it to themselves and the public generally to inform the local health officer of the same.

Otherwise the next essential step in the control of such disease, namely that of isolation or quarantine as the case may require cannot be secured or maintained lawfully.

It is also the duty of the physician in attendance to give the necessary detailed instructions to the nurse or other person in attendance in regard to precautionary measures for preventing the spread of the disease.

Upon being notified of a case of communicable disease, it is the duty of the local health officer to inquire regarding the probable source of the infection, to determine whether the necessary precautionary measures are understood and observed and to see that the required isolation or quarantine is being carried out.

Law of Grippé

In case of influenza, isolation only is required, which is defined as that degree of detention necessary to insure non-contact with susceptible persons. The epidemic form of this disease has already appeared in California. Its onset is acute and often very sudden. The general symptoms predominate over the local. The temperature varies and is not generally of less than seven days duration in uncomplicated cases.

Grippé Strictly "Human"

Surgeon General Rupert Blue of the United States public health service says that "the incubation period is usually short, and is not generally of less than seven days duration in uncomplicated cases."

"All evidence points to human contact as being the means of its spread, and from the local symptoms it has been assumed that the nose and throat have been the points of ingress of the virus and the points of inoculation. There is nothing to show that other animals have any part in carrying the disease."

"The treatment is symptomatic, on account of varying reactions, rest in bed should be prolonged after defervescence in proportion to the severity of the case."

"Attention to cleanliness of the mouth, adequate ventilation, avoidance of exposure to cold and isolation from those who may be infected, are of pneumonia and are measures not advisable to prevent complications."

"Crowded offices, etc., and particularly street cars are potent factors in the spread of the disease. The avoidance of places where people come together in large numbers should, therefore, be urged during an epidemic."

Edgington, Surgeon General Blue further says that:

"The most dangerous form of human contact in the presence of epidemic influenza is in all probability that with coughers and sneezers behind a handkerchief, as great a sanitary offense he promiscuous spitting, and should be equally condemned."

NOW WIDESPREAD IN CALIFORNIA

Spanish Influenza Virtually Covers Entire United States

TULARE, Cal., Oct. 10.—William Rutherford, who arrived here October 2 from Oklahoma, died tonight from what county health officials declared was Spanish influenza. Rutherford's wife, three children and a nephew are in a hospital at Visalia, stricken by the same malady, it was said.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Spanish influenza now has spread to practically every part of the country. Reports today to the public health service showed the disease is epidemic in many western and Pacific coast states as well as in almost all regions east of the Mississippi river. Its spread also continued in army camps, a number of new cases reported being greater than on the day before.

Influenza now is epidemic at three places in Alabama, in Maryland at many parts of Arkansas in Louisiana, Missouri, Mississippi, Nebraska, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia, and the states. In Mississippi, important places over the state have been closed and all public gatherings prohibited. Schools have been ordered closed and all public gatherings prohibited at Seattle, Tacoma, Everett, Prosser, Sultan and Port Angeles, Wash.

The disease is reported from many parts of California, while in Texas the outbreak has been reported from seventy-two counties, with the number of cases varying from 1,000 to 1,000 in each county. A slight decrease is noted in the number of cases reported in Massachusetts, but in the district of Columbia the number is increasing rapidly more than 2,000 new cases being reported.

New cases of influenza reported today at army camps totaled 13,065, a slight increase from the number reported yesterday. There also was an increase in pneumonia cases, with 2,812 reported. The 250 deaths made a total of 6,242 in the camps since the epidemic started last month.

At the Argonne forest, France, reported 1,430 new influenza cases today, while Camp Center, Mich., reported 1,000 and Camp Taylor, Ky., 600. The highest number of pneumonia cases, 270, was reported at Camp Meade, Md., while Camp Center had 25 new cases and Camp Grant, Ill., 201.

west of the Argonne forest, the Americans have penetrated more than two kilometers beyond the line between St. Etienne and Oufant. Heavy French and American artillery preparation preceded the advance of the infantry.

Soon after the activity started, the Germans attempted a counter-attack, but were repulsed by the Allied artillery. Several airplanes cooperated with the French just north of St. Etienne beating off the German infantry and machine gunners. The principal resistance was with machine guns.

The troops advanced over yellow clay ground and the clay, blending with the khaki, made the American uniform a difficult target for the Germans.

The Americans went over a slight slope through stubby spruce and pine trees, feeling perfectly at home, the country resembling their native health in the south.

In the regions where the French and Americans advanced in this sector more than a hundred tanks were used. The Americans reported that they had reached their objective in less than three hours. The French on their right and left kept abreast and also arrived at their destination ahead of schedule.

FOCH MAY NAME TERMS FOR ARMISTICE

France east of St. Quentin, has thrust a blunt wedge which not only has engulfed Cambrai, but has torn its way through the whole Hindenburg defense zone into open country beyond.

On the north, the British force pressing in on Lille from the west and north forms the northern jaw of a possible pincer movement against the whole Douai salient. The Germans began a retirement on the Lens-Vrémont line some time ago which they have checked, forcing them to the relinquishment of their Douai front unless they also could be relieved simultaneously. The capture of Cambrai now threatens this front from the south as well. It is believed here that the enemy must move immediately out of the Lille-Douai region.

Supported by Gouraud

The situation looks to be even more critical on the Laon front. From the north, the British break-through almost certainly will give the Allies command of the Oise valley in a number of hours with a direct line before them in a movement southward on Laon itself. To the southeast the French troops under General Gouraud already are across the Aisne and are turning the enemy's position on the Suippe still further east with the American second division aiding.

The Suippe line offers little hope of prolonged resistance as it is supported by few strong hill positions and the occupation of the Aisne valley in the near future seems a certainty. That would leave the enemy along the front in St. Gobain forest and on the heights to the southeast in a difficult position between the Oise and Aisne lines.

Kaividing both these pincer movements, stands that great trap tipped on the Meuse jaw by the American first army and in Belgium by the French-Belgian push that has reached Tournai, and would cause the enemy to prepare for early capture.

At both extremities of this line there are strong indications that new blows are about to be struck.

Drive in Belgium

It has been reported unofficially that the entire French army has been moved to Belgium to supplement the Anglo-Belgian effort there. Officers here have noted that recent reports have made no mention of this army and are inclined to believe that a new drive in Belgium is to be expected in any moment.

On the other extreme of the line, today's advances show that General Pershing has been cleaning up the ground immediately east of the Meuse where enemy positions stand on the flank of his lines of communication with the most advanced forces near Brielle. This may be a tactical move to prepare the way for a new American drive on the Meuse front.

NEW TURK CABINET NOW IS PRO ALLY?

Peace Note Said to Be on Way Through Spanish Hands

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The British foreign office has received indirect news of the fall of the Turkish cabinet.

Tewfik Pasha, who it is reported will be the new grand vizier, is understood to have pro-ally, rather than pro-german sympathies.

According to advisers, which are not official, however, the cabinet had decided to take military measures against Bulgaria, but found that the opinion of the country was against them.

It is rumored that a Turkish peace note has been dispatched through the Spanish government.

PLANS FOR "LIBERTY DAY" ARE MADE

OFFICER OF "BLUE DEVILS" OF FRANCE IS COMING TO FRESNO

Lieutenant Vincent de Wierzbicki to Speak at Great Auditorium Rally Saturday Night—High Commissioner France, Member War Mission

Lieutenant Vincent de Wierzbicki of the French High Commission and an officer of the famous "Blue Devils" of France, a man who speaks English as if it were his mother tongue, will address a great patriotic rally at the Municipal Auditorium next Saturday night in celebration of "Liberty Day," so designated by proclamation by the President as the day as the anniversary of the discovery of America upon whose shoulders now rests the safety of all humanity.

Lieutenant de Wierzbicki also is a member of the French War Mission to the United States and is being sent here to Fresno by Chairman Allen Chalkering of the General Speakers Committee because he gave the soldiers of the Trophy Train the most enthusiastic welcome they had received at any point on their journey.

When Chalkering saw 7,000 people in the Municipal Auditorium and heard them cheer the boys who fought and bled over this, he said:

"For your celebration on the 12th I want to give you the best speaker we have on our list—a man who tells a story that is unforgettable. I want to send you your first French soldier—Lieut. Vincent de Wierzbicki. We shall reserve him for you."

So it was settled. And on the same night, General James Bonnar—our own hero of Chateau Thierry—will make his first appearance before a great American audience. He will not speak, but he will be there and his story will be told from the platform. Other soldiers back from over there may also be here on that night, but no civilians will appear.

This decision was definitely reached yesterday. No local speaker, no civilian speaker—except the man who tells Bonnar's story, who will speak simply for Bonnar and then stop—will be heard. There will be music and the distinguished French officer and Bonnar.

Special Liberty loan meetings will be held in the school districts through Fresno county this week. On Thursday, October 10, at 8 o'clock p. m. meetings will be held in the following districts: In the school houses and the following "Four Minute" speakers have been assigned by Frank A. GEARLEY CALLS ON HIS CAPTAINS TO DOUBLE EFFORTS

Fresno Can Go Over Top This Week if All Subscribe Now

Urges That Procrastination Is Likely to Bring Disgrace

City Campaign Manager C. T. Gearley yesterday called on every patriotic citizen in the city to redouble his efforts to induce men and women who have not yet subscribed to the Fourth Liberty Loan to do so today. NOW—not next week.

"If every man, woman and child in Fresno who intends to buy bonds would subscribe now," declared Gearley, "the city would go over the top by Saturday. Why? I am Fresno's splendid record to putting off until tomorrow what you can do today."

"It cannot be possible that Fresnoans have ceased in their efforts to do their duty at home to the soldiers of the supporting line, as Private Smith of the Seaforth Highlanders called us last night."

"Have the endless lines of American troops coaxed to retreat from American commitments to the battle front in France?"

"Have American shipyards ceased to launch their thousands of tons daily in tribute to the Kaiser's presumption in attempting to wipe the seas clear of all ships except those that fly the flag of France?"

"Have the fighting been less bitter on the Western front because the line has been shortened by the German retreat?"

"The answer to all these questions is an emphatic 'No.'"

"When allied military leaders declared that the war would be won next year they counted upon just such a retreat at the present time as the Germans have been forced into and upon the present next spring of an American army of four or five million men."

"We must take care to keep President Wilson's warning that the war is not yet won and that the Fourth Liberty Loan must be made an overwhelming success in order that our war chest may remain full."

"Mountains of munitions, warehouses full of food, whole cargoes of clothing must back up our fighting men for many months yet."

"German savagery as applied to non-combatants presumably will be little heard of from now on since their line soon will be among their own villages."

"German soldiers, however, may be expected to fight more viciously when backed up on their own soil than they did when they were sent forward by the hosts and revelers of their officers in France. Is the German retreat from Belgium, partly through military necessity and partly through policy to make us forget the unspeakable atrocities that marked their occupation of that country?"

"Is her retreat from French territory to make us forget the Finnish destruction of orchards and homes that preceded that retreat?"

"Let your answer be recorded in your subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan."

NERELY COVERING POSSIBLE RETREAT

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN CHAMPAGNE, Oct. 9.—(By The Associated Press.) The battle in Champagne is going on with increasing intensity today, from the Aisne in the region of Vaux-les-Moires, which was taken this morning by the French, to the Salpêtre river at Bazancourt, which is violently attacked by the Germans.

South of St. Etienne, on the Arnes river, the enemy made a vigorous assault upon the positions won by General Gouraud's men Tuesday, but without other result than to increase largely the German casualties.

Notwithstanding the stubborn opposition the enemy is offering on the Salpêtre and north of the Arnes, the impression still is that he is merely seeking to gain time to reduce the difficulties of retreat, the extent of which in view of the developments on the extreme left wing of the fighting front, is impossible to forecast.

The vigor and perseverance of the Allied pressure appears to have damaged all the German plans.

Nowhere have the Germans with all their genius in a reorganization been able to prepare a stable position upon which their defeated troops could retire in security, which suggests that they again have tried in their judgment of the strength and endurance of the Entente allied fighting forces.

They are being defeated not only at points chosen for attacks by Marshal Foch and his generals, but on ground selected by themselves for counterattacks.

Keep One Gap Open

Their reaction all along the Champagne front thus far has been productive of only one result relatively favorable to them, in the region of the Grand Pré Gap, which they have been able to keep open up to the present, although the gap is under the heavy fire of the French guns.

The latest American advance northward to the east of the Argonne forest has now particularly neutralized that result. The Grand Pré Gap is now virtually closed and the only real lines of communication for the enemy forces operating in Champagne are now being cut by the French and British forces.

Most of these lines over considerable distances are being shelled by the French artillery.

Unless by a supreme effort and utilizing available resources, the Germans are able still to make a stand on the Meuse just north of the Aisne their defeat is a matter of time.

APPLE CROP

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The commercial apple crop this year is 24,400,000 barrels, the department of agriculture has estimated. Last year's crop was 23,512,000 barrels. California's crop totals 3,350,000 boxes.

To the People of Fresno County:

With but nine days yet left in which to do it, there remains still to be raised of Fresno County's quota of the Fourth Liberty Loan the sum of $2,047,500.

Unless the rate at which subscriptions are being received is more than doubled for the entire time remaining, Fresno will be placed in the unenviable position of having for the first time failed to respond to the appeal of Our President. And that at a time when every ounce of manhood and womanhood in us should urge us to respond to the limit of our ability, and to do it of our own free will.

We appeal earnestly to those who have not yet definitely made their subscriptions, to do so immediately.

We urge those who have not done all that they can do, to increase their subscription to the limit of their ability and to do so at once.

High Priced Suit Houses are Sure Going the Limit in Charging for Their Suits

And It Is Not Necessary to Pay the High Prices for You Can Get the Same Quality Suit Here for $10 Less

Just take a look around town; look at the prices on suits displayed in the various show windows. You'll find them as high as $75.

Now, do you want to pay $75 for a suit or even $60 or $50? I should say you do not. Well, it isn't necessary for you to do so. Just because some fellow is profiteering or the traffic can bear the price, that is no reason why every man should be asked to pay that much to get a good suit of clothes.

A merchant says to you, "We can sell you a suit for less money." Of course he can, but what is it? Nothing but a cotton rag.

Be sure you get a good wool suit, but don't pay those terrible prices until you at least take a look at the suits I am selling for $10 less. You will find them to be the very best high grade suits on the market, made of the best wools obtainable. You will find them to be of the very latest cut and up to the minute in every detail, and you will find them priced $10 less than the other fellow has his priced.

Let me prove it to you.

AMID THE RUINS OF MOSELLE

Western Newspaper Union. Moselle, once the scene of much fighting in the early days of the war, is once more in the line of the Allied advance. The retreating Huns are burning towns in their retreating paths, and the entire countryside is a mass of flames. This French official photograph shows a quiet scene amidst the roar and fire of battle, horses and cows watering at an old-fashioned well.

PLACES GERMANY IN BAD DILEMMA

(Continued from Page 1.) and a mere presentation of alternatives promises to plunge Germany into internal conflict and perhaps into revolution.

France Must Judge

PARIS, Oct. 9.—The Society of Literary Men of France today adopted

a resolution outlining its idea of peace. The resolution concluded: "The Society is convinced that no one in France will accept the proposal to discuss peace with the enemy as long as he occupies militarily the smallest part of the French territory, including Alsace-Lorraine."

"No Frenchman, having a sense of realization of the future and imbued with the hope of a long and tranquil peace, will associate himself with a treaty which would not assure with all reparations, restitutions, indemnities and necessary sanctions and guarantees, the security to which we have a right and of which France, four times invaded, trampled upon and be-of the last century and of all countries in arms the only one which is forever exposed to the horrors of war, must be the sole judge."

Approval in Paris

PARIS, Oct. 9.—President Wilson's reply to the German peace note was published in the noon editions of the newspapers today and was greeted with a general satisfaction and expression of approval throughout Paris. The note could not be improved upon, substituted Paris for Washington as the date line and the reply might have been dictated here, is an epitome of French opinion as indicated by the popular reception of the presidential document.

Paris was on its way to luncheon when the newspapers containing the note came out and the people literally fought for copies of the edition.

The significant passage in the note in which President Wilson refuses to entertain the possibility of a cessation of hostilities and demanding the immediate withdrawal of the German troops is interpreted in military circles as meaning that the Allies will give the Germans no respite in their retreat.

Commandant Mirabel, one of the best known military critics in France, expressed the view to the Associated Press correspondent in this connection that the Germans if they were harassed and pressed during their retreat to the Meuse, would lose one-third of their effectives and one-half of their material. On the other hand, he declared, if they were allowed to retreat to the powerfully fortified lines of the Meuse with their armies intact and their line shortened by nearly 300 kilometers, 40 of their divisions would be available for maneuvering.

Cuts Max's Snares

PARIS, Oct. 9.—Commenting on the note the francophone says: "The response of President Wilson by its sincerity and good faith cuts with a single stroke the snares laid by Prince Max of Baden. President Wilson responds by asking Germany: 'What do you mean? Do you accept my conditions? Do you speak in the name of the government and the people?' He requires before any negotiations that Germany evacuate the invaded territory of France, Belgium, Serbia, Russia, Poland, Rumania and Montenegro. This is an answer similar to that given the Duke of Brunswick after his defeat at Vimy."

Must Give Her Whipping

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Talk of peace at this time is apt to paralyze the energies of soldiers and impair the usefulness and productivity of munition workers. Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the British admiralty, said today, in discussing the German attempt to obtain an armistice:

"We cannot win this war by talking of peace." Sir Eric said. "To get us all talking of peace is just what Germany wants."

The soldier at the front who gets the notion that peace is coming soon and that Germany is about to collapse loses the will to win, Sir Eric said. "There can be no greater peril to the cause of liberty, decency and humanity for which the Allies are fighting," he added, "than a relaxation of energy brought about by a general conviction that the war is about to end, that Germany is licked and that therefore it is not necessary to continue preparation and striving."

"I am not interested in how much longer Germany can hold out. What interests me is how great a whipping we can give her. The Allied armies and Allied navies will bring peace. Let the Kaiser talk while Koch shoots."

Is "Unconditional"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the Senate military committee, expressed the opinion today that President Wilson's inquiry in response to the German peace proposal was quite as effective as he has bluntly proposed unconditional surrender.

"It must elicit a reply," said the senator, "which in the very nature of things will disclose whether the German government was sincere in the original proposition for peace negotiations."

"Germany cannot comply with the fourteen fundamental propositions laid down by the President without laying down her arms, withdrawing within her own borders, abandoning all her warlike and surrendering territory heretofore taken by force of arms."

"Personally, I believe in unconditional surrender, and the acceptance by Germany and her Allies of peace terms dictated by the Allies, and not by the President's note. It is a polite and diplomatic suggestion of unconditional surrender and the acceptance of these terms."

Capture Hun Kitchens

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Monday, Oct. 7.—(By the Associated Press).—Ten rolling kitchens, which a few days ago rolled about with steaming food for the Germans, today were rolling behind the American lines near the village of Mont Rabe with food for the Americans.

The kitchens, together with a great supply of food, were captured in the course of the Franco-American push west of the Argonne forest. The Americans overrunning the "kitchens" in the wooded tract beyond Somme-Py. Fires were burning in several of the kitchens when the Americans arrived. In addition to the kitchens, the Americans also captured a number of horses used in hauling food and these animals are now working in the interest of the Allies.

EIGHT NEW WELLS IS WEEK'S REPORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—Notices filed with the California State Mining Bureau for the week ending October 5, 1918, show eight new wells ready to drill, making a total of 571 wells reported since the first of the year. Of this total, 94 wells are listed from the Coalinga district, 295 in Kern county, 104 in Los Angeles and Orange counties, 35 in Ventura county and 27 for Santa Barbara and adjoining counties. A total of 808 wells was reported for the same period during 1917.

The largest number of new wells reported for any one week was 38, for the week ending May 18, 1918. The average number of wells reported per week so far this year is 14 as compared with an average of 20 per week last year. Six new wells were reported in Midway-Sunset fields during the past week.

In addition to the eight new wells reported, 18 notices of test for water shut-off were received. There were also ten deepening or producing and three abandoning jobs reported.

MEXICAN OIL STOCK TAKE BIG ADVANCE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9.—Mexican Petroleum is booming on the New York Stock Exchange. With the single exception of United States Steel is the most active stock on the exchange. Its price has gone as high as $120, and on one day no less than 57,400 shares changed hands, the total value represented by these transactions being not less than $6,886,000.

In sympathy with Mexican Petroleum, and on the strength of the general oil conditions, other oil stocks also boomed and on the day in question no less than $3,600,000 was represented by the trading in oil shares, all of them, by the way, of independent companies, no stock of the former Standard subsidiaries being listed on the exchange.

The Texas company was second in the trading among the oil stocks, with deals valued at $2,800,000. California was third, with some 1,200,000 to its credit.

Mexican Petroleum's sensational boom comes directly in the face of the difficulties between the oil companies operating in Mexico and the Carranza government, which was caused by the nationalization of oil lands, favored by the latter, and despite the heavier taxes recently imposed upon the industry.

The reason assigned for the big boom is the knowledge that with the signing of peace, Mexican Petroleum will enter upon an overseas trade of stupendous proportions. In 1916 President Doherty went to England, and there concluded negotiations with some of the biggest steamship and industrial companies in the world for supplies of fuel oil to be delivered immediately after the war. With this trade the company will earn many millions for its stockholders, and will immediately take its place in the very foremost rank of the world's mightiest corporations.

During 1916, in preparation for this trade, the Mexican Petroleum interests began building an enormous fleet of oil tankers. Since the United States became a belligerent, these ships have rendered inestimable service to the Allied cause.

Since the order was issued July 8, $1,000,000 has been taken from the wells operating on these lands and impounded by the government in the form of Liberty bonds.

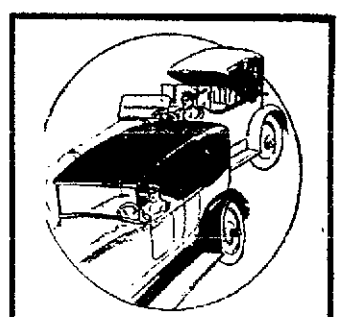

Howard M. Payne, who is under investigation following published reports that he secured a widespread personal credit as the custodian of impounded funds from these lands, is the receiver.

REMOVE HEADQUARTERS.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Oct. 9.—It is reported that three large oil companies that have holdings in Kern county have filed notices of a change in their business headquarters. The headquarters were in Oakland. They have been changed to Sacramento. These changes are to take place immediately. The names of the oil companies are: The U. I. Oil Corporation, the California Oil Company and the E. B. and E. B. Dudley Oil Company.

ALLIES ARE FIGHTING IN THE OPEN COUNTRY

Defense

Monday's Fighting Proves Remarkable Blow
to Germans

PARIS, Oct. 9.—The Hindenburg line no longer bars the path of the Allies. The definite rupture of it was achieved on the first day of the fighting in the new development north of the Escaut.

To Anglo-Saxon forces went the honor of storming the last remnants of the extraordinary mass of defense between Cambrai and St. Quentin. The day's fighting was notable in that the enemy's losses must have run into tens of thousands of men during the day's fighting in the various sectors of the long battle front. In addition important strategic objects were attained.

The Allies now are in the open country on the Cambrai-St. Quentin front and are threatening Bohain, an important transportation junction, the Americans last night having pushed within two miles of that place. Once the masters of Bohain, the Allies could take in the rear not only the Laon-St. Gobain massif, but the Hindenburg line along the river Sambre, which joins at Charlemont-Perchon the Brunhilde line running along the Aisne.

All the German positions parallel to the German frontier, starting in the east and running as far as La Capelle, Yverville and Marle, run the risk of being rolled in.

The other jaw of the trap which is closing relentlessly on the Germans, that operated by General Gouraud, also has secured important results. While attacking the Sappe line frontally, General Gouraud is turning it by marching on Machault and Juniville and has arrived close to the front line. Consequently there is every probability of his reaching the Brunhilde line at the time when its western continuation, the Hindenburg line, is in danger.

To complete the day's work, Franco-American forces moved up on the right flank of the Meuse, won back places famous in the Verdun struggle and got in line with the Americans on the left bank who are thus relieving the gallant flanking fire which had prevented their moving forward.

The German position has been rendered considerably worse as a result of yesterday's fighting, in the opinion of the military commentators. General Ludendorff delayed his general retreat so long that in the view of the critics he is in danger of leading back merely the remnants of his army to the famous glacis which protects Germany.

Major De Clevieux asks: "This precipitate demand for an armistice—does it not spring from a vision of disaster?"

"Reichstag Unconvinced"

AMSTERDAM, Tuesday, Oct. 9.—George Reinhard, the German political writer, writing for the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin, says that Prince Maxmillian's announcement in the reichstag that an armistice has been requested was received in stony silence.

Like ghosts, remembrances of former speeches, speeches uttered through the chamber, speeches invariably based on reports of "victorious marches" of German troops, he says, Bernhard bitterly complains that Prince Maxmillian neglected the opportunity to declare his readiness to discuss with France the facts of Alamea and Lorraine and with Russia the question of border provinces. He says this omission confirms the view that the new government means to perpetuate the political conceptions of the old government and declares that this continuation of the old policy is extraordinarily dangerous. He concludes: "The government only puts its trust in President Wilson and a kind fate."

"In a Measure" Only

VIENNA, Oct. 9, via Basel.—In opening the Austrian chamber of deputies Baron von Huesarek the Austrian premier, announced officially that a peace-note had been sent to President Wilson and said:

"In a measure the note accepts the basis for negotiations indicated by an important personality in the adverse camp. It is evident that the Central Powers are disposed to adopt a course leading to a pacific end."

"But I cannot deny that this basis requires in many details a modification of the political ideas which thus far have directed public opinion. Nevertheless, I hope this assembly will approve of the new step leading to an epoch in which the great peoples of the world will decide their own future. A response not taking into account our disposition would show a will to destroy us and would meet from the Central Powers inflexible resolution."

Pacific, 41 Per Cent

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—The twelfth Federal reserve bank district up to tonight had subscribed $166,092, 650 of its allotment of $402,000,000 in the fourth liberty loan, district headquarters announced tonight. This amount actually was on deposit in banks.

According to these figures, the district has subscribed 41.3 per cent of its quota at the end of the first half of the loan period. George K. Weeks, campaign manager said tonight that he was not alarmed at the district's showing as he had been advised by all campaign officials that an intensive campaign has been started to bring the district over the top by next Saturday and Liberty Day.

The percentage of subscription to their respective quotas by the states in the twelfth Federal reserve bank district was announced as follows: Oregon, 70; Idaho, 58; Washington, 51; Utah, 50; Arizona, 49; Southern California, 38; Northern California, 33; and Nevada, 32.

Eleven northern California counties have passed their quotas according to loan officials.

Cable advices received here tonight stated Hawaii had over-subscribed its quota of $4,765,050.

Clear Right Flank

WITH THE FRANCO-AMERICAN FORCES NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 9, 11 p. m.—By the Associated Press.—The Americans today maintained the advantages gained yesterday east of the Meuse and pressed on to the southern outskirts of Sivry and entered Chateau wood.

West of the Meuse, against freshly engaged divisions, they penetrated the enemy's main line of resistance between Cunel and Romagne.

In the Argonne they took important heights to the south of Marcon and joined hands with the French. They took 2,000 additional prisoners.

The Americans had their day filled

SEVENTY-NINE ALLIED PLANES IN ONE FLOCK

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE CHAMPAIGN FRONT, Oct. 9, 11 p. m.—By the Associated Press.—During the American attack south of Romagne the enemy's seventy-nine Allied bombing planes, based southward, having bombed Bazancourt and other railway and supply stations behind the German lines. American pursuit planes took an active part in clearing the air for the bombers, downing four Fokkers in the regions of Remonville and Aimeville. The bombers started out late in the afternoon in groups. After accomplishing their missions the groups met on the war back and passed over the American line in one flock.

KING AGREES TO POPULAR VOICE

BASEL, Switzerland, Oct. 9.—The will of the people of Bulgaria will be the guide of King Boris, the ruler declared at a dinner to the members of the Bulgarian cabinet, says a dispatch from Sofia.

"I will do my utmost to accomplish my task," the king said. "I will let myself be guided by the will of the people, will depend entirely on their devotion and will surround myself with patriotic advisers who, I am convinced, never will fail if the nation is in danger."

"The country shall not perish. Let us work together, full of confidence and with a single aim—the good of the people and of Bulgaria."

WANTS HIGHER RATES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Application for authority to increase express rates $1.00 a hundred pounds from San Francisco and other parts of the United States and Canada in Hawaii, was made to the Interstate Commerce commission today by the American Railway Express company.

HINTZE THE PROFOUND

The fact that Admiral von Hintze and Count Burián have let the world know that they do not contemplate starting a peace drive now does not incline us to believe them. The words of German statesmen are often to be taken in the reverse sense. What they probably mean is that instead of starting the peace drive officially from Berlin, with a burst of trumpets, as in 1918, they will work in an underground way, through the socialists, pacifists and gulls of the enemy countries. A good suggestion is made to von Hintze by the Ausburg-Alendpost, which says:

"Our enemies will only believe in our sincerity if we give up big words after each of our military successes."

The Alendpost presumably refers to the Kaiser. It must indeed be disconcerting to an ardent statesman like Hintze to be regarded as a peace bait for rogues and then, the moment the Germans win a victory anywhere, to have the Kaiser come roaring in with his "Forward with Gott!" and scare the fish away. And yet how von Hintze is to take the Alendpost's hint? The Kaiser will take no suggestions from him on the subject of keeping his mouth inactive, and even if Wilhelm were willing, what can he do?

What is especially admirable about von Hintze's speech in Vienna is his description of the hard conditions under which the American, French and British newspapers work.

"We need not be discouraged by the enemies' cries of victory. Among our enemies the press works under state control, and the newspaper writer (being) is simply sent to prison."

Are the Republican papers in this country, are the London Daily News and the Manchester Guardian unaware of their danger? — New York Times.

With major and minor successes and advances at every point in the sector where they attacked. Farther to the east, cooperating with the French troops, American divisions advanced for a considerable distance east of the Meuse and cleared the Germans out of the sector where they had been dangerously troublesome, because they were able to pour an enfilading fire upon the advancing troops.

Cannot Be Accepted

ROME, Tuesday, Oct. 9.—Commenting upon the German proposal for an armistice, the Corriere d'Italia, the semi-official Vatican organ says:

"An unconditional acceptance of the offer made by the Central Powers is out of the question unless invaded territories are first evacuated as a guarantee for the enemy's good intentions."

New Flame Bomb

PARIS, Oct. 9.—The Germans have been using in their air work a new type of inflammable bomb, combining great effectiveness with light weight. A single airplane, it is said, can carry 200 of these bombs.

The only way of fighting the fire caused by this new weapon appears to be the isolation of the blaze, as pouring water on it is literally adding fuel to the flames because of a chemical with which the bombs are composed.

"Weighed in the Balance"

Against your eyesight, what are a few dollars more or less? To hear some people talk, you would think they are ready to barter their eyes to save their purses. Yes, glasses are higher than formerly! Why? Because we now scientifically examine the condition and need of your eyes, and prescribe the proper lenses. Then we grind them carefully, fit them exactly, and charge you for our work reasonably. If you think this is common sense, you are the person I can best serve.

THE MOST DANGEROUS DISEASE

No organs of the human body are so important to health and long life as the kidneys. When they slow up and cannot dispose of the waste products of the body, the result is a condition known as "acidosis." This is a very dangerous disease, and one that is often fatal. It is caused by a build-up of acid in the blood, and it is often the result of a diet that is too rich in meat and fat. It is also the result of a lack of exercise and a lack of proper care of the kidneys. The only way to prevent this disease is to eat a diet that is low in meat and fat, and to exercise regularly. It is also important to keep the kidneys healthy by drinking plenty of water and by avoiding alcohol and tobacco.

Great Lakes Quarter Has Smashed Shoulder

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Oct. 9.—Coach O'Leary's carefully laid plans for the Great Lakes Naval Training station opening football game against Iowa University received a jolt with the injury of Jimmy Conzelmann, eleven quarterback, who smashed his shoulder blade.

Conzelmann has been backing signals, handing the forward pass and playing safety for the navy team since its inception a month ago. A veteran of the 1917 Great Lakes squad—although only 19 years old—he was expected to guide the 1918 machine through the season.

However, basketball and lawn tennis teams will be formed by both the boys and girls as a source of physical training during intervals of the school periods.

EXPLOSION WRECKS MUNITIONS PLANT

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 9.—The fusion building of the Aetna Chemical company works at Hiedelberg, near here, was destroyed tonight by an explosion of several benzol tanks. Officials of the company announced several hours after the explosion that none had been killed or injured.

Fire, which followed the detonation, destroyed the wreckage of the building. For a time the flames threatened the T. N. T. works, but firemen brought the fire under control. The cause of the explosion has not been determined.

BARBOUR IS BUSY IN BAKERSFIELD

Luncheon Is Given Him
Visits West Side
Towns Today

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 9.—Harry E. Barbour, Republican candidate for Congress, spent a busy day today in Bakersfield. After an early breakfast he was taken in charge by prominent citizens of the town, who tore themselves away from their business and worked in relays, so that he might be given an opportunity to meet as many as possible of his well wishers. He was met at a luncheon at the Tegeler hotel by a number of men, who found it impossible in any other way, and tendered him their best wishes, and their aid and support. More and more as Mr. Barbour gets over the district it becomes evident that his candidacy is beginning to be regarded in the sort of a non-partisan light, and that the voters are quietly but surely making up their minds that they will cast their ballots for him in November. Numbers of men called last night at the Tegeler hotel where he is staying, to offer him support and to try to persuade him to stay over in Bakersfield for a few more days, in order to give them an opportunity to place him in touch with other friends and supporters of his. But his itinerary calls for an early start tomorrow morning for a visit to the towns in the oil fields on the West side, and he was obliged to decline these requests.

COMMUNITY SINGS OPEN WAR REVIVAL

In the win the war drive being conducted at the North Side Christian church by Rev. Frederick Merrill Brooke great interest is being shown by the people living in North Fresno. The services are opened each night at 7:30 with a community sing of patriotic songs that is enjoyed by everyone. The subject of the address last night was "The Way of Life". The speaker said in part:

"During the earthly ministry of Jesus the disciples followed the man because of his wonderful teaching and because of a great and dynamic personality. Just before He left them to go to Heaven they earnestly enquired what they should do when He was gone. He gave them a great statement of eternal truth which challenges our consideration as it did theirs. He said, 'I am the way.'"

"We are all travelers, going from somewhere to an unseen land. Our bodies finally wear out, but the man that lives in the body moves out. We can not remain here. Jesus has prepared a home for each soul and his words reveal the path that leads home."

"There are three classes of people who will fail to arrive in safety at the gate of the eternal home. They are the indifferent, the heedless and the hardened. The indifferent are in the full blaze of Gospel light yet like an owl blink their eyes and go to sleep. The heedless are like blundering lunks hurtling through the air around an electric light globe. And the hardened, are like the thorn on a briar bush, or like a brick lying in the path over which people trip."

The meetings will continue each night this week at the North Side Christian church, corner Sumner and College avenues.

BOARD REJECTS BUILDING BIDS

The supervisors yesterday rejected the bids of Fredericks & Sannon for the contract to remodel two buildings for homes for the aged and a training school for nurses near the county hospital. The bids were rejected because the board felt they were too high. There were no other bids. They amounted to $11,150.

The board will advertise for new bids, as the county has the properties, and has need of the new room. The buildings were provided for in the annual budget adopted in September, but the budget called for about $13,000.

Andy Brown was named inspector for bridges to be built by contract on the Big Creek road.

The board voted to call for bids for the sale of alfalfa hay produced on the county farm this year.

SUES FOR $12,000 ON SHOP CONTRACT

James L. Daly filed an amended complaint, suing George Perry for $12,000. Daly had the contract to build a brick machine shop at Chowchilla. The complaint alleges the contract price was $17,663. Daly is suing for the balance due September 1.

MORE OF 'CROWDER'S MEN' JOIN DRILL COMPANIES

Volunteer Draft Men in Intense Training, Plan War Practice Sunday

Will March into Country; and Return; Public Rally Next Week

Military drill grew intensive at last night's class of Crowder's men at the armory. Doubtless the enrollment of the class attended, including twenty recruits, General Crowder's national plan to have the men of military age prepare by voluntary training, and so hasten the day of the nation's downfall, is bringing in scores of men daily over the county.

Lieutenant Deton, who last night divided the men into four classes and drilled each class, teaching the men new commands and putting them through rigid exercises to prepare them for the work they will get in the U. S. contingents. The men responded with spirit. Plan War "Hike".

A general plan of training for the next ten days was evolved by the officers and men. Sunday morning will be the first real war test. The men will march two to four miles into the country under Major Jones, who will give expert counsel on the care of the feet. The feet are the foundation of the efficient soldier, according to the major. A rally similar to that of last Monday night is planned for next week. And the families and friends of the training soldiers will be invited.

Captain S. L. Gallaher rose from a hospital bed last night to be present on his regular drill night. He was chiefly an interested spectator, but will be at his regular place in the future.

No automobiles or lunches will be permitted Sunday morning. Volunteers of Fresno and the surrounding towns and country will answer roll call at the armory on 1 street, and will leave at 9 o'clock sharp.

No camping. The route will be chosen at the last moment, by a "council of war," said an officer, "and there will be no ambulance, limousines or limousines. We are going to march."

Next Sunday will take a lunch with us. "The route will be chosen at the last moment, by a "council of war," said an officer, "and there will be no ambulance, limousines or limousines. We are going to march."

The Kingsburg committee telephoned the Republican last night that the draft first meeting will be held there at the high school at 8 o'clock (undoubtedly night). Fresno officers will attend.

Major Jones will have charge of the drills tonight. He is also drilling the police at 6 o'clock each afternoon. Tomorrow night he will drill all those who wish the experience with the Home Guards.

ANOTHER "DRY" MEETING TONIGHT

"If you are loyal at all, if you care at all to have the lives of our boys over there, California will go dry, because every one who is patriotic will vote 'No' on No. 1 and No. 2." This was the message that Miss Marie C. Brehm, scientific lecturer of the board of temperance of the Presbyterian church, and twice representative of the United States at the World's Anti-Alcohol Congress, brought to Fresno last night, when she addressed more than sixty people at the First Presbyterian church.

She said last night that anyone who refuses to vote "No" on No. 1 and No. 2 is a traitor to the Big Five, the nation and the flag.

Miss Brehm quoted from the war industries board, fuel administration board, food administration board, transportation board and the President, who, when in conference, ordered that all brewing stop December 1, in the interests of winning the war.

In view of this, Miss Brehm continued, every patriot must vote that program to ratify the national proposition, and California must do her part.

Miss Brehm told how the Breweries in prohibition states are being transformed to factories for war work. In Oregon, she said, the brewery was changed to a shoe factory; at Denver, to a milk condenser; for Belgian babies; Wheeler, W. Va., to a meat packing factory; and in Michigan from a brewery to a Methodist church.

Miss Brehm will speak tonight at the Westminster church.

KINGS RIVER MEN MEET MONDAY

The Kings River Conservation District executive committee will hold its first fall meeting at the trustees' room, city hall, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, October 14. The committee will take up the continuation of measuring the flow from the river, and in the various canals begun last year, and other matters. W. P. Boone, executive secretary, will be here from Berkeley.

FLEEING AUTOISTS IN DUEL WITH POLICE

Kelp Up Running Revolver Fire from Madera Here

Flight Is Stopped as Car Crashes in Tree at Belmont

Shooting at Traffic Officer J. S. Aiken of Madera county as he followed them for miles along the highway, a fugitive automobile party was not stopped last night until the car crashed into a tree at Belmont avenue near the Southern Pacific crossing. It was when the party attempted to avoid local Police inspectors Enos, Broad and Trux, who had been sent out to head them off in response to a call from Madera. They kept up a running fight with the officer all the way to Fresno.

In the party were two men who gave the names of Alfred Charles Hawthorne and R. A. Jacobs and a woman who gave the name of Mrs. Moore, then said her name was Dorothy Lee. The speeders were attempting to escape from Aiken after he had bailed them at Madera. They kept up a running fight with the officer all the way to Fresno.

According to Traffic Officer Aiken's story, he had followed the car from Madera to Chowilla, where he placed them under arrest and found that Hawthorne had no registration certificate and that Jacobs or Moore was without a chauffeur's license. They followed him back to Madera, where Hawthorne began shooting at him as soon as they were south of town.

Although Aiken had no revolver with him he followed the party as far as Borden, where he managed to borrow one from a friend and also telephoned to Sheriff Thorwaldson and Chief of Police Gehring to intercept the fugitives.

Inspectors Broad, Trux, Merrill, Enos and Motorcycle Officer Sayre hurried to the scene and arrived at the P crossing just in time to engage in the fight.

Even after the fugitive's car had struck the tree Hawthorne steadied his revolver across the back of the seat and kept on firing until the bullets began whistling around his ears, when he surrendered. The bottom of the car was covered with loaded cartridges. He used a .38 caliber revolver of a cheap manufacture.

The car was a new one and was registered to C. A. Starrow, 505 Harvard Boulevard, Los Angeles. It was completely ruined.

Excepting a few bruises, the occupants escaped injury and the men were taken back to Madera by Aiken and Deputy Sheriff Clark of Madera county. The woman was removed to the Fresno county hospital for the night.

In his statement to the officers, Hawthorne claimed he had been employed by the Dollar Taxi company of Los Angeles and that he had received the car from George Hackett of Los Angeles on a $450 bill. It was reported that Hawthorne was a former picture actor. He is a tall slender fellow and looks to be about 21.

Jacobs or Moore stated that Hawthorne had hired him in Los Angeles to drive the car to San Francisco, but that he hesitated doing so because he had no chauffeur's license, although claiming to be a taxi driver.

He said that Hawthorne had threatened to shoot him if he did not make the machine go faster.

The woman, who was taken to the emergency hospital, seemed to be badly bruised, but had received no bad bones, according to Dr. Kjaerbye. She appeared to be about 39 or 40 years old and gave her address as the Grand Pacific hotel, Los Angeles.

Hawthorne gave his address as 181 1-2 28 avenue east, Jacob at 526 West 8th street.

The license number of the car was 10991.

Trux, Broad and Enos barely escaped being shot several times in the fight.

FRESNO FIRMS TO GET R. R. MONEY

Fresno claimants in large numbers are interested in the supreme court decision giving $33,000 damages against the Santa Fe company for overcharges for hauling freight from Bay points to Fresno. Claims aggregating many thousands of dollars, and many of them date back as far as 1912. The claims are pressed against the railroad for charging more for the short haul than for through hauls to Los Angeles. The entire situation fixing charges was settled a few years ago by the courts and the Railroad Commission. The recent charges have been local. The supreme court some years ago ruled against the Southern Pacific. Those claims have not yet been paid. For some reason the claims against the Santa Fe company were not pressed.

The Fresno Traffic association took an interest in the case but has been waiting on the courts.

About three years ago a collection company in San Francisco took over 150 claims in Fresno and vicinity, amounting to $4,000 to a few hundred dollars each, to collect them on the basis of a large percentage fee. These claims amount to $35,000.

According to Roy Hall of a Fresno firm, the other claimants, with larger amounts to collect, agreed to await the action of the court on the just case presented, and the stipulation was entered that if the plaintiffs won the suit, the claims of others would also be paid.

RESINOL CLEARS AWAY EMBARRASSING PIMPLES

March 30.—"Some time ago pimples began to appear on my forehead, and spread so that people remarked about them, and I didn't like to go anywhere. That account, I tried various creams, soaps, and skin remedies, but nothing seemed to help me. A friend of mine who had the same trouble told me she cleared her skin with Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, so I tried them. After the first application all the redness and soreness disappeared, and after two or three applications my friends began to ask me what I used. My face looked so much better. "Now I can go to places without being ashamed of those awful pimples, and I will never be without Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap." (Signed) Miss Jessie Tarrant, 47 Beech St., Rutherford, N. J.

"I'd Like to Be There!"

You have said it—as you have looked at some vivid picture or read some stirring account of our boys fighting with American courage and self-sacrifice. If you cannot go out to them, you can fight for them, over here. Smash open the way for them with howitzers and big guns. Send them ammunition, tanks, airplanes, rifles, clothing, food. Help to keep them victorious.

You can lend as fearlessly, as unselfishly, as they fight. That is your job as a part of our war machine.

OF COURSE you would "like to be there." They don't need you yet or you WOULD be there. But they need guns and shells, every hour they remain on the road to Berlin.

Absolutely the next best thing to going over is to BUY LIBERTY BONDS—BUY TO YOUR LIMIT
